COR 1902 – Core CE #564004135

Approved 6 credit hours of Mandatory Core Continuing Education in Illinois

A course designed for: Illinois Licensed REALTORS®

Course Description:

The Illinois Real Estate License Act of 2000 sets the foundation for ethical and legal real estate practices in the state, and as a licensee, it's your responsibility to understand the regulations that guide agency relationships, brokerage agreements, advertising rules, escrow management, and fair housing compliance. This course will break down these critical topics in an engaging, practical way, helping you apply them to real-world transactions with confidence.

In these six hours, we'll navigate key laws and policies that impact your daily operations, ensuring you can confidently meet client needs while adhering to Illinois and federal regulations. From understanding your fiduciary duties to avoiding costly compliance mistakes in advertising and fair housing, this course is designed to keep you up to date and in control of your professional responsibilities. Let's dive in and ensure you have the knowledge to protect your business, serve your clients effectively, and uphold the integrity of Illinois real estate! This 6-hour course meets the "single core curriculum" continuing education requirement for brokers and managing brokers in Illinois which includes two hours of required fair housing training.
