

How to get a Real Estate Broker License

STEP-BY-STEP GUIDE

The Illinois Department of Financial & Professional Regulation's (IDFPR) Division of Real Estate issues real estate broker licenses to individuals meeting the criteria below. Those who wish to conduct the business of buying and selling real estate for others must complete the steps listed below.

Questions about this information or obtaining a Residential Leasing Agent or Managing Broker license should be sent to Support@IllinoisSchoolofRealEstate.com

Meet IDFPR minimum qualifications

Minimum Age: 18

Minimum Education: High School Diploma or GED

Identification: SSN or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number AND government-issued photo ID

1

Complete 75 required hours of Broker Pre-License coursework

Broker Pre-License Courses: www.illinoischoolofrealestate.com/getyourlicense/brokerprelicense/

60-hour: Broker Pre-License Topics Course – transcript valid for two years

15-hour: Broker Pre-License Interactive Course – transcript valid for two years

2

Pass State & National Licensing Exam (administered by PSI)

State portion: 40 multiple-choice questions

National portion: 100 multiple-choice questions

Allowed attempts: Four

Exam fee: $58 each attempt

Passing Score Report: Passed exam valid for one year

3

Obtain Managing Broker sponsorship

Click here to learn more about finding the RIGHT sponsor

4

Complete IDFPR online application process

Register: IDFPR's online portal at <https://online-dfpr.micropact.com>

Upload: Pre-License transcript(s) - valid for two years

Passing Score Report: passed exam valid for one year

Application fee: $150 application

Confirmation: Managing Broker confirms sponsorship

5

IDFPR confirms information and issues license